the Friends of the Newark Public Library today!

The Friends of the Newark Public Library is a community-based membership organization dedicated to supporting and promoting The Newark Public Library through programs, advocacy and financial support.

By joining the Friends, you attend cultural and educational programs that support the Library in many ways including their special collections. You also help promote the Library’s vast resources for children and young adults.

You become an advocate on behalf of The Newark Public Library which helps this important facility get its fair share of government funding and resources.

Friends volunteer and help organize events that promote the Library in the community and beyond. They provide funding for the library to purchase new materials and update essential collections.

Friends groups can make the difference between a budget increase and a budget cut for their libraries. As much money as Friends raise through book sales and other activities, a 1% increase in your library’s budget can add up to thousands of dollars or more of the library’s budget. Not only that, but effective advocacy campaigns waged by the Friends, ensure community support. You can make a long lasting and significant difference for your library through advocacy.

The Friends of the Newark Public Library sponsor the John Cotton Dana Distinguished Lecture Series honoring an individual who has made a difference in Newark.

John Cotton Dana Lecturers to date are: Stephen Adubato, Amiri Baraka, John T. Cunningham, William J. Dane, E. Alma Flagg, Barbara Kukla, Samuel C. Miller, Nell Painter, Clement A. Price, Peter Rodino, Philip Roth, and Richard Wesley.

Dana was the world-famous pioneer in the field of libraries and director of The Newark Public Library from 1902 until his death in 1929.

John Cotton Dana’s Twelve Famous Rules About Reading

1. Read
2. Read
3. Read some more
4. Read anything
5. Read about everything
6. Read enjoyable things
7. Read things you yourself enjoy
8. Read, and talk about it
9. Read very carefully—some things
10. Read on the run—some things
11. Don’t think about reading, but
12. Just read
