Newark Public Library's New Jersey Room has been collecting material about the city and state for 70 years. Help us celebrate this important anniversary by joining us for a discussion of a new exhibit opening tonight.

Newark's History Keepers: 70 Years of the New Jersey Room includes samples from a collection that has been a top repository since it opened on October 15, 1951.

Co-curators Thomas Ankner, Beth Zak-Cohen, and Gregory Guderian talk about the exhibit, the anniversary, and the importance of the work we do every day to document the lives of people in the city of Newark and state of New Jersey.

Newark's History Keepers: 70 Years of the New Jersey Room will be on view on the third floor of the Main Library until March 31, 2022.
